ADMINISTRATION

The ability to understand the functional needs of the church, to plan and execute procedures to meet those needs, and to manage the details in order to free those in leadership to prioritize their efforts.

APOSTLESHIP

The ability to move with authority from God to create new ministries or ministry structures (church and para-church) to meet needs and to recruit, develop and appoint leadership in these structures.

DISCERNMENT

The ability to know with assurance whether certain teaching or behavior purported to be of God is in reality divine, human, or satanic; to sense the presence of spiritual forces.

EVANGELISM

The ability to sense when people are being drawn to Christ; the desire to seek out relationships with those who don't know Jesus; and the ability to clearly and effectively communicate the Gospel of Jesus Christ to others.

EXHORTATION

The ability to urge people to action in terms of applying Biblical truths; to encourage people generally with Biblical truths; or to comfort people through the application of Biblical truth to their needs.

FAITH

The ability to recognize in a given situation that God intends to do something and to trust God for it until He brings it to pass; to trust that God is sovereign and He is good; to encourage and build up the church in her confidence in God.

GIVING

The compelling desire and ability to share one's goods to meet the various financial needs of the church and its ministries, missionaries, or of people who do not have the means to provide fully for themselves without expecting anything in return.

HEALING

The ability to recognize in a given situation that God intends to grant supernatural healing of the mind, body or soul; and to serve as the human intermediary through whom God releases that healing.

INTERPRETATION OF TONGUES

The ability to hear someone speaking in another language or unknown tongue and understand what they are saying, despite not having studied or heard that language or tongue before.

INTERCESSION

The desire and ability to regularly pray for extended periods of time and see frequent and specific answers to their prayers.

LEADERSHIP

The ability to discern the plans and purposes of God and then to cast vision, motivate, and direct people to harmoniously accomplish those plans and purposes.

MERCY

The ability to feel genuine empathy and compassion for individuals (both Christian and non-Christian) who suffer distress, physical, mental or emotional problems, and to cheerfully respond in practical, helpful ways.

MIRACLES

The ability to recognize in a given situation that God intends to perform powerful acts that defy natural laws in order to create a sense of awe, wonder and Godly fear; and to serve as the human intermediary through whom God performs that work.

PASTORING/SHEPHERDING

The compelling desire and ability to assume a long-term, personal responsibility for the spiritual well-being of a group of believers.

PROPHECY

The ability to receive and deliver truth of a predictive nature or a situational word from God resulting in the edification or comfort of believers, or convincing non-believers of God's truth.

SERVING/HELPS

The compelling desire and ability to perform practical tasks to assist others and free them up to fully engage their gifts.

TEACHING

The ability to explain and apply the Scriptures in such a way that believers understand and are impacted by Biblical truth.

TONGUES

The ability to fluently speak or pray in a language or dialect, despite not having studied or heard that language, dialect, or tongue before; used in public settings only if being interpreted by someone with the gift of Interpretation of Tongues.

WORD OF KNOWLEDGE

The ability to possess knowledge about another person or situation that wouldn't be known unless it was given by God.

WORD OF WISDOM

The ability to perceive the mind of the Spirit in a given situation and to communicate clearly the situation, facts, truth and best course of action.
